Hoosiers Urged to Report Damage
State Department Reminds Hoosiers to Report Tornado and/or Flooding Damage

Hoosiers who sustained damage caused by the severe weather and flooding in Central Indiana last week, are urged to call their local Emergency Management Agency (EMA). The Indiana Department of Homeland Security is working with the local EMA's to quantify losses from the damaged areas and determine if federal assistance should be requested. Losses can include structural damage to homes and loss of personal property.

Callers will be asked to provide their name, address, phone number, damage to property and type of damage the property sustained. For a complete list of EMA's, visit the IDHS website at:
